6. Brief of Incident :

A secret information was received that some accused were illegally ferrying cattle in dumpers which did not bear registration number plates. The Police setup a checkpoint for apprehending the criminals. Around 7 PM, two dumpers without numbers were seen coming from village side. The Police party manning the checkpoint signalled the vehicles to stop. Instead of stopping, the driver of first dumper accelerated his vehicle and tried to run over the Police party. Ct. Satyavir Singh sustained serious injuries on his hands and legs. The driver of second vehicle drove his vehicle over Ct. Satyavir Singh. Other Police personnel narrowly escaped the wrath of both the speeding vehicles by jumping away from the track of the vehicles. He succumbed to his injuries while being evacuated for treatment and attained martyrdom.
