During the routine patrol in Rohtak district, SI Balwan Singh saw three people standing on the roadside. When SI Balwan Singh enquired why they were standing there, they told him that a boy on the motorcycle had snatched their money and mobiles. SI Balwan Singh then tried to catch the snatcher and asked him to surrender. And suddenly, the boy opened fire on Ct. Harwinder which hit him at the back. SI Balwan Singh fell down and the boy fled away on his motorcycle. Ct. Harwinder Singh informed the Control Room about the incident. Both the injured policemen were evacuated to a hospital. SI Balwan Singh was died during treatment. Thus, Balwan Singh discharged his official duty without carrying for his own life and attained Martyrdom in the line of duty.
